HOT WAVE PREVALENT

SPREADS EAST AND NORTH

Iowa, Missouri and Kansas Have Registered Ninety Degrees or Over for a Month—Seriousness of the Situation Increased by the Lack of Rain. Pacific Coast Has Cool Weather. Fifty-six Degrees at San Francisco.

Washington, July 22.—A hot wave of unusual and in places record-breaking intensity is again prevalent over the Central Western part of the country and is spreading eastward and northward. The Central West reported the extraordinarily high temperature line of 100 degs., including the states and territories of Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Iowa, Missouri, Indiana and Illinois. At Chicago at 7 o'clock the temperature was 100 degs., exceeding by several degs. anything ever before recorded at that time of the day. A serious feature is the showing made in the states of Iowa, Missouri and Kansas, where the temperatures have been 90 degs. or over for a period of over a month. For 18 days of this time the thermometer at Kansas City registered 100 degs. or more. Weather bureau officials do not care to make any prediction as to the prospects of relief. They say that none as yet is in sight.

The seriousness of the situation to the crops is increased by the lack of rain, none of importance having fallen in the corn belt for three days and there apparently being no prospects. The rain which to the states of the corn belt during the past week was not by any means general in character, but a succession of thunder showers, affording temporary relief to the over-parched ground and grain. The relative high barometer in the southeast section of the country shows a persistent continuation of warm southerly winds, and there appears to be no prospect of a change until the appearance of a high barometer in the Northwest, where a low pressure now has full swing. Such relief of a local character as is held out in the meantime, it is stated, will be due to local thunder showers, which always accompany periods of protracted heat. Some rains have fallen in the past 24 hours in the South Atlantic states, the Gulf states and in the extreme Southwest.

Contrasted with the remainder of the country the Pacific coast in enjoying a period of cool weather, San Francisco reporting a temperature of 56 degs. as the result of cooling breezes from the ocean.

IN THE PRESIDENT'S HANDS

Canton, O., July 22.—Governor Charles H. Allen of Porto Rico reached Canton from Washington and spent the day at the McKinley home. His mission here was to present to the president the resolution passed by the Porto Rican legislature providing a system of local taxation for the island such as under the act of congress entitles the island to free trade with the United States. The president's official acknowledgment of the receipt of this resolution will be made July 25, the anniversary of the landing of American troops in Porto Rico, when a proclamation will be issued declaring free trade between the United States and Porto Rico.

"The question of my return to Porto Rico has not been determined," said Governor Allen. "I went there at the request of the president and when he is through with me he will doubtless let me know. I have not resigned."

Governor Allen is well pleased with the conditions in Porto Rico and anticipates a bright future for the island.

BRYAN DISAPPROVES.

Throws Cold Water on the Movement for a Bolt in Ohio.

Cleveland, July 22.—By a letter to G. A. Grott, prominent in the "Bryanite bolt" in Ohio, W. J. Bryan has thrown cold water upon the whole movement. In no uncertain language he informs the bolters that they can expect no sympathy from him.

While not pleased with the repudiation of the Kansas City platform by Ohio Democrats Mr. Bryan emphatically sets his seal of disapproval upon any move calculated to do possible harm to the Democratic ticket as nominated. The letter of Mr. Bryan came as an answer to one written to him by Mr. Grott.

Four Killed by an Express Train.

Lebanon, N. H., July 22.—A carriage containing James Goodwin of Hinsdale, Mass., William Thurston of Percy, N. H., Thomas Burns of Wincoski, Vt., and Eddie McCabe of Lebanon, was struck by the Montreal express on the Boston and Maine railroad shortly after midnight and all four were instantly killed.

Serious Disturbances in Hswangi.

London, July 22.—"It is officially reported here," says the Shanghai correspondent of The Standard, "that serious secret society disturbances have broken out in the Hswangi district of the province of Fo Kien."

WOULD LET THE BARS DOWN.

Chinese Consul General for Unrestricted Immigration.

San Francisco, July 22.—Chinese Consul General Yow has addressed to the secretary of state a 5-page typewritten statement arguing in favor of the government letting the Chinese in. "We think," said Yow, "that by raising the bar against Chinese and permitting them to come into the country commerce will be greatly benefitted. We think the council's regulations in regard to vice and other topics are all responded to. By placing a wall between China and the United States," says Yow, "the trade of the two countries must suffer. The trade between the two countries will be equal to that of the rest of the world."

BRITISH SEAMEN BARRED.

Oriental Navigation Company to Man Its Boats With Lascars.

Sidney, N. S. W., July 22.—The Oriental Steam Navigation company has decided to man their steamers with Lascars, which means that the mail lines between Australia and Great Britain will be manned by black crews only. The labor organizations have established an agitation in favor of inserting a provision in the postal bill that only white persons be employed on mail steamers.

DEATH OF MRS. KRUGER

A VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Was Ill Only Three Days—Long Separation From Her Husband, Combined With the Death of Her Daughter, Had Completely Broken Her Spirit—Mr. Kruger Deeply Affected When the News Is Broken to Him.

Pretoria, July 22.—Mrs. Kruger, wife of Former President Kruger of the South African Republic, died Saturday afternoon of pneumonia after an illness of three days. She was 67 years old.

Mrs. Kruger's long separation from her husband, combined with the death of her daughter, Mrs. Smith, last week, had completely broken her spirit.

Mrs. Eloff and many other members of the Kruger family were at her bedside when she passed away.

Mrs. Kruger was the second wife of the Transvaal president. She was a Miss Du Plessis, a name of prominence in South Africa. Mr. Kruger's first wife was her aunt.

Mrs. Kruger was a typical Boer woman. She cared nothing for finery and in the days of prosperity at her home in Pretoria she had all the simplicity of manner and mode of living of the plainest woman of the land.

Mrs. Kruger was the mother of 16 children. Her daughters all married wealthy burghers and most of her sons took an interest in the army. She and the president lived in a modest little 2-story cottage painted white and covered with morning glory vines.

KRUGER DEEPLY AFFECTED.

London, July 22.—"Owing to the Sunday telegraph hours in Holland," says a dispatch to The Daily Mail from Hilversum, "Mr. Kruger was not informed of his wife's death until the evening. The news was broken to him by Dr. Heimans and Secretary Boichestein. Mr. Kruger, who had just returned from Hilversum church, burst into tears and asked to be alone. He exclaimed: 'She was a good wife. We quarreled only once and that was six months after we were married.' He prayed for a long time and is now calmly sleeping, his Bible beside his bed.

"The Transvaal and Orange Free State flags flying above the white villa were draped and half-masted. Shortly before the news came a crowd of country girls had been singing a folk-song outside the villa."

English Papers Extend Sympathy.

London, July 22.—The morning papers all publish dispatches confirming the death of Mrs. Kruger and all sympathize with Mr. Kruger. The Standard begins thus: "All British will feel deep sympathy with Mr. Kruger for the deep domestic affliction that has befallen him." This is followed by eulogies of Mrs. Kruger.

ANOTHER FLAG INCIDENT.

Commissioner Whipple Objects to the British Ensign on July 4.

San Francisco, July 22.—News of a flag incident at Unalaska on July 4 has been received here. Among the decorations of the British ship Glenora in honor of the day was a British flag. It was hauled down by the British captain after United States Commissioner Whipple had twice ordered it down and made threats of arresting the master. Whipple reported his action to Captain Knox of the gunboat Concord, who immediately ordered a file of marines to proceed to the Glenora in a cutter. They boarded the Glenora and themselves hoisted the British flag of the British ship. At the same time a British flag was run to the masthead of the Concord, the guns of the warship boomed a salute to the flag to which Whipple had objected and the incident was closed.

POWERS MUST BE FIRM.

Otherwise There May Be a Recrudescence of Trouble in China.

Tien Tsin, July 22.—Europeans here consider that a prevention of a speedy recrudescence of trouble depends entirely upon the firmness displayed by the powers. It is thought that this fact should be recognized in Europe and the United States.

The general feeling in Tien Tsin is that China is in nowise overawed or repentant. Li Hung Chang is reported to have adopted an offhand tone toward a member of the provisional government and to have talked confidently of ousting the provisional government soon. The Chinese have recommended cutting telegraph wires.

General Cushing Dead.

Washington, July 22.—Brigadier General Samuel T. Cushing, U. S. A., retired, formerly commissary general of subsistence, died here. He was appointed to the military academy from Rhode Island in 1855 and served through the Civil war. Near the close he was brevetted major for meritorious service. He entered the commissary branch in 1863 as a captain and rose to the rank of brigadier general and commissary general of subsistence Jan. 28, 1898. He was retired April 21 of the same year.

FOUND TWO BODIES.

New York, July 22.—The bodies of the Misses Ida Elizabeth and Annette Colburn, the daughters of Arthur T. Colburn of Philadelphia, who were drowned with their father when the 2-masted yawl Venitzia sank in Long Island sound last Thursday, are now at the establishment of a Brooklyn undertaker awaiting orders from Philadelphia for final disposition. The bodies were found in the cabin of the Venitzia when she was raised Saturday and the vessel with the two dead was brought to Brooklyn by the steam derrick Champion, which raised the sunken craft. So far the bodies of only the two daughters have been found, leaving those of Mr. Colburn, Captain Flint and a sailor known as Frank Still to be located.

STATE OF UNREST.

Condition Now in Evidence in Official Circles of Northern Pacific.

St. Paul, July 22.—The official announcement of the election of James J. Hill to the directorate of the Northern Pacific road has caused a state of unrest in Northern Pacific circles.

"We are all up in the air," said one of the officials today. "Everybody is looking for something to drop."

Locally, among officials of other roads, it appears that the opinion prevails to some extent that the personnel of the Northern Pacific directorate does not provide for much power in the hands of Mr. Hill. Whatever intentions he may have in respect to the Northern Pacific system, he cannot, they claim, carry them out without the full consent of the board.

North Sea Coast Rising.

London, July 22.—"The rise of the North sea coast or the sinking of the sea level has been confirmed," says the Berlin correspondent of The Standard, "by observations at the mouth of the Kaiser Wilhelm canal. These show a decrease in the depth of the water at the mouth of the Elbe of 16 to 18 feet since 1898."

Rain Falls in Texas.

Houston, Tex., July 22.—During the past three days reports of good rains have been received from about 150 counties in Texas, about one-half of them in the cotton growing section. The rain extended well over South Texas.

MARTINELLI OFFICIATED.

St. Josephat's Church at Milwaukee Dedicated by the Cardinal.

Milwaukee, July 22.—Cardinal Martinelli dedicated St. Josephat's church, First and Lincoln avenues, in the presence of more than 4,000 people. The edifice had been in process of erection for five years and was built from the material of the old Chicago postoffice.

The edifice as it stands takes rank as the fourth Catholic church in the United States in point of grandeur. It was erected at an expense of $175,000, and yet it is stated on the highest authority that it could not be duplicated for $750,000. The ceremony at the church was of the most impressive stamp. Prelates of the Catholic institution, robed in the habiliments of their orders by the score, participated in the ritual subordinate to Cardinal Martinelli.

CADETS PROSTRATED.

West Point, N. Y., July 22.—During the funeral of General Butterfield 25 or 30 cadets fell overcome by the heat and fatigue. Carriages conveyed them to the hospital. The victims are mostly of the new class.

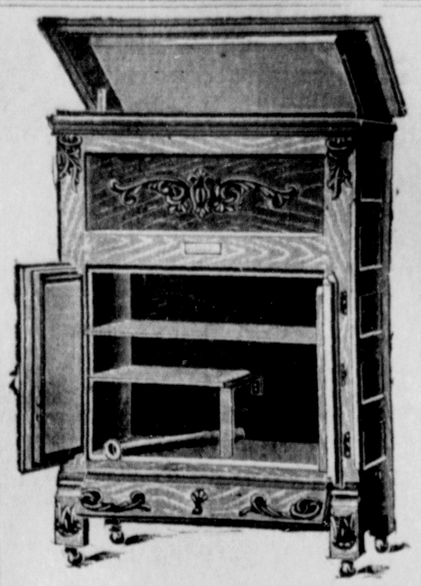

The cadets were subjected to a hot practice march in the hot sun during the forenoon and upon their return to West Point, without food, were ordered immediately to change their dress and fall into line for the funeral.

At the cemetery they were required to stand in a strained position for a considerable time, and this ordeal was more than the fresh recruits could endure.

None of the cases are regarded as dangerous.

Burned to Death by a Match.

Covington, Ky., July 22.—While Mrs. D. Sherman was walking along the sidewalk she stepped on a match which ignited her dress and she burned to death in great agony. Her mother was so prostrated when her burned body was brought home that her recovery is despaired of.

STRIKE OF STATIONARY FIREMEN PRACTICALLY DECLARED OFF.

MINE WORKERS LUKEWARM

Conference of Officials Held at Which Miners Express Their Disapproval of the Present Fight—Strikers Will End the Trouble if the Men Out Are Reinstated in Their Old Places Without Prejudice.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 22.—The stationary firemen's strike will soon be at an end.

A meeting of the executive officers of the United Mine Workers of the three anthracite districts and the chief executive officers of the Stationary Firemen's association was held in this city for the purpose of discussing the situation. The United Mine Workers have all along been lukewarm in their support of the strike and the firemen insisted that they define their position once for all, as it was impossible to carry on the strike if the United Mine Workers opposed it. With that object in view the executive officers of the United Mine Workers agreed to come to this city and meet the strikers. After a thorough canvass of the situation in which the miners plainly stated that they considered the strike inopportune a resolution was adopted calling on the grievance committee of the Firemen's association to call on each coal company and ascertain if the men who went out on strike Tuesday will be given back their positions. These committees are to make a report to the same joint committee which met here, and if the replies from the companies are favorable then the strike will be

Officially Declared Off.

"After the officers of the United Mine Workers defined the attitude they contemplated assuming toward the firemen should their strike continue we thought that it would be to the interest of all concerned to bring it to a speedy termination, and in consequence thereof we instructed the firemen to pursue all honorable methods to have their positions returned.

"Although the strike is not yet declared off until after the answers are received from their employers, yet it seems to be the prevailing opinion that should they be favorable the action of the delegates will end the strike. But should anyone now out of employment owing to the strike be discriminated against the end would be as far off as ever, as the firemen are determined to stand by those who sacrificed their positions before they would take our places. All firemen who are still at work shall remain until after this convention."

THE PITTSBURG STRIKE.

Pittsburg, July 22.—The important event in the strike history of the day is the organization of the tube mill workers from McKeesport. The word from there is that after long and arduous work Assistant Secretary Tighe of the Amalgamated Association succeeded in organizing 175 men of the National Tube Works company. At the meeting 25 skilled men from each of the departments were initiated into the mysteries of the Amalgamated Association, and Mr. Tighe claims that within 48 hours enough more of the workmen will be secured to keep the entire plant closed down, affecting 9,000 men.

From Wellsville nothing has been received here except word that the situation is unchanged and the strikers say everything is satisfactory to them. It is believed, however, that an attempt will be made to put men to work there from other points. While the strikers say they will not commit any overt act there is an uneasy feeling manifest throughout the entire valley and no one is willing to anticipate the result of the proposed attempt to put these men to work.

President Shaffer expressed himself as being more than satisfied with the week's result. He would say nothing of the plans of his association during the coming week further than to reiterate his former statement that his programme was perfected and would be carried out to the letter. His people had been preparing for this conflict, which they foresaw for three years, and are prepared to carry on the fight for almost an indefinite period.

CONTEMPT FOR INJUNCTIONS.

Chicago, July 22.—Because C. J. O'Donnell expects to be sent to jail in the morning he was elected one of the officials of the Chicago Federation of Labor during the evening. In electing O'Donnell, one of the three metal workers who are to be imprisoned for contempt of court, the federation expresses its disapproval of contempt proceedings.

"This action on the part of the federation is intended as a reply to the decisions that have been handed down by certain judges," said President Bowman. "We want to show them that they cannot intimidate us and that we intend to picket buildings and shops despite the injunctions."

SIDE WITH MOONSHINERS.

Nashville, Tenn., July 22.—Reports from Monterey, Tenn., near which place an internal revenue raiding party was ambuscaded by moonshiners Saturday morning and two men badly wounded, say excitement in that district is at a high pitch. The natives seem to have generally sided with the moonshiners and Collector Bell deemed it advisable to take his posse to Cookeville to await reinforcements. Every deputy collector and deputy marshal in the district has been summoned to join in the raid which is contemplated.

The moonshiners have boasted they will not be taken alive, and as they are well armed and fortified in the mountains a serious conflict is expected.

Collector Bell reports that one of the moonshiners, Frank Whittaker, has died of wounds received in Saturday's fight, and that another, Will Patt, had his leg amputated as a result of a wound received in the same affray.

Thomas Prince, the wounded deputy marshal, has been taken to his home in Sparta, while Corder Mackay, the wounded posseman, is at Cookeville and is reported to be in a critical condition.

West Point, N. Y., July 22.—During the funeral of General Butterfield 25 or 30 cadets fell overcome by the heat and fatigue. Carriages conveyed them to the hospital. The victims are mostly of the new class.

At the cemetery they were required to stand in a strained position for a considerable time, and this ordeal was more than the fresh recruits could endure.

Burned to Death by a Match.

Covington, Ky., July 22.—While Mrs. D. Sherman was walking along the sidewalk she stepped on a match which ignited her dress and she burned to death in great agony. Her mother was so prostrated when her burned body was brought home that her recovery is despaired of.

MINE WORKERS LUKEWARM

A meeting of the executive officers of the United Mine Workers of the three anthracite districts and the chief executive officers of the Stationary Firemen's association was held in this city for the purpose of discussing the situation. The United Mine Workers have all along been lukewarm in their support of the strike and the firemen insisted that they define their position once for all, as it was impossible to carry on the strike if the United Mine Workers opposed it. With that object in view the executive officers of the United Mine Workers agreed to come to this city and meet the strikers. After a thorough canvass of the situation in which the miners plainly stated that they considered the strike inopportune a resolution was adopted calling on the grievance committee of the Firemen's association to call on each coal company and ascertain if the men who went out on strike Tuesday will be given back their positions. These committees are to make a report to the same joint committee which met here, and if the replies from the companies are favorable then the strike will be

Officially Declared Off.

"After the officers of the United Mine Workers defined the attitude they contemplated assuming toward the firemen should their strike continue we thought that it would be to the interest of all concerned to bring it to a speedy termination, and in consequence thereof we instructed the firemen to pursue all honorable methods to have their positions returned.

"Although the strike is not yet declared off until after the answers are received from their employers, yet it seems to be the prevailing opinion that should they be favorable the action of the delegates will end the strike. But should anyone now out of employment owing to the strike be discriminated against the end would be as far off as ever, as the firemen are determined to stand by those who sacrificed their positions before they would take our places. All firemen who are still at work shall remain until after this convention."

THE PITTSBURG STRIKE.

Pittsburg, July 22.—The important event in the strike history of the day is the organization of the tube mill workers from McKeesport. The word from there is that after long and arduous work Assistant Secretary Tighe of the Amalgamated Association succeeded in organizing 175 men of the National Tube Works company. At the meeting 25 skilled men from each of the departments were initiated into the mysteries of the Amalgamated Association, and Mr. Tighe claims that within 48 hours enough more of the workmen will be secured to keep the entire plant closed down, affecting 9,000 men.

From Wellsville nothing has been received here except word that the situation is unchanged and the strikers say everything is satisfactory to them. It is believed, however, that an attempt will be made to put men to work there from other points. While the strikers say they will not commit any overt act there is an uneasy feeling manifest throughout the entire valley and no one is willing to anticipate the result of the proposed attempt to put these men to work.

President Shaffer expressed himself as being more than satisfied with the week's result. He would say nothing of the plans of his association during the coming week further than to reiterate his former statement that his programme was perfected and would be carried out to the letter. His people had been preparing for this conflict, which they foresaw for three years, and are prepared to carry on the fight for almost an indefinite period.

CONTEMPT FOR INJUNCTIONS.

Chicago, July 22.—Because C. J. O'Donnell expects to be sent to jail in the morning he was elected one of the officials of the Chicago Federation of Labor during the evening. In electing O'Donnell, one of the three metal workers who are to be imprisoned for contempt of court, the federation expresses its disapproval of contempt proceedings.

"This action on the part of the federation is intended as a reply to the decisions that have been handed down by certain judges," said President Bowman. "We want to show them that they cannot intimidate us and that we intend to picket buildings and shops despite the injunctions."

SIDE WITH MOONSHINERS.

Nashville, Tenn., July 22.—Reports from Monterey, Tenn., near which place an internal revenue raiding party was ambuscaded by moonshiners Saturday morning and two men badly wounded, say excitement in that district is at a high pitch. The natives seem to have generally sided with the moonshiners and Collector Bell deemed it advisable to take his posse to Cookeville to await reinforcements. Every deputy collector and deputy marshal in the district has been summoned to join in the raid which is contemplated.

The moonshiners have boasted they will not be taken alive, and as they are well armed and fortified in the mountains a serious conflict is expected.

Collector Bell reports that one of the moonshiners, Frank Whittaker, has died of wounds received in Saturday's fight, and that another, Will Patt, had his leg amputated as a result of a wound received in the same affray.

Thomas Prince, the wounded deputy marshal, has been taken to his home in Sparta, while Corder Mackay, the wounded posseman, is at Cookeville and is reported to be in a critical condition.

HOT WAVE PREVALENT

SPREADS EAST AND NORTH

Iowa, Missouri and Kansas Have Registered Ninety Degrees or Over for a Month—Seriousness of the Situation Increased by the Lack of Rain. Pacific Coast Has Cool Weather. Fifty-six Degrees at San Francisco.

Washington, July 22.—A hot wave of unusual and in places record-breaking intensity is again prevalent over the Central Western part of the country and is spreading eastward and northward. The Central West reported the extraordinarily high temperature line of 100 degs., including the states and territories of Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Iowa, Missouri, Indiana and Illinois. At Chicago at 7 o'clock the temperature was 100 degs., exceeding by several degs. anything ever before recorded at that time of the day. A serious feature is the showing made in the states of Iowa, Missouri and Kansas, where the temperatures have been 90 degs. or over for a period of over a month. For 18 days of this time the thermometer at Kansas City registered 100 degs. or more. Weather bureau officials do not care to make any prediction as to the prospects of relief. They say that none as yet is in sight.

The seriousness of the situation to the crops is increased by the lack of rain, none of importance having fallen in the corn belt for three days and there apparently being no prospects. The rain which to the states of the corn belt during the past week was not by any means general in character, but a succession of thunder showers, affording temporary relief to the over-parched ground and grain. The relative high barometer in the southeast section of the country shows a persistent continuation of warm southerly winds, and there appears to be no prospect of a change until the appearance of a high barometer in the Northwest, where a low pressure now has full swing. Such relief of a local character as is held out in the meantime, it is stated, will be due to local thunder showers, which always accompany periods of protracted heat. Some rains have fallen in the past 24 hours in the South Atlantic states, the Gulf states and in the extreme Southwest.

Contrasted with the remainder of the country the Pacific coast in enjoying a period of cool weather, San Francisco reporting a temperature of 56 degs. as the result of cooling breezes from the ocean.

IN THE PRESIDENT'S HANDS

Canton, O., July 22.—Governor Charles H. Allen of Porto Rico reached Canton from Washington and spent the day at the McKinley home. His mission here was to present to the president the resolution passed by the Porto Rican legislature providing a system of local taxation for the island such as under the act of congress entitles the island to free trade with the United States. The president's official acknowledgment of the receipt of this resolution will be made July 25, the anniversary of the landing of American troops in Porto Rico, when a proclamation will be issued declaring free trade between the United States and Porto Rico.

"The question of my return to Porto Rico has not been determined," said Governor Allen. "I went there at the request of the president and when he is through with me he will doubtless let me know. I have not resigned."

Governor Allen is well pleased with the conditions in Porto Rico and anticipates a bright future for the island.

BRYAN DISAPPROVES.

Throws Cold Water on the Movement for a Bolt in Ohio.

Cleveland, July 22.—By a letter to G. A. Grott, prominent in the "Bryanite bolt" in Ohio, W. J. Bryan has thrown cold water upon the whole movement. In no uncertain language he informs the bolters that they can expect no sympathy from him.

While not pleased with the repudiation of the Kansas City platform by Ohio Democrats Mr. Bryan emphatically sets his seal of disapproval upon any move calculated to do possible harm to the Democratic ticket as nominated. The letter of Mr. Bryan came as an answer to one written to him by Mr. Grott.

Four Killed by an Express Train.

Chinese Consul General for Unrestricted Immigration.

San Francisco, July 22.—Chinese Consul General Yow has addressed to the secretary of state a 5-page typewritten statement arguing in favor of the government letting the Chinese in. "We think," said Yow, "that by raising the bar against Chinese and permitting them to come into the country commerce will be greatly benefitted. We think the council's regulations in regard to vice and other topics are all responded to. By placing a wall between China and the United States," says Yow, "the trade of the two countries must suffer. The trade between the two countries will be equal to that of the rest of the world."

BRITISH SEAMEN BARRED.

Sidney, N. S. W., July 22.—The Oriental Steam Navigation company has decided to man their steamers with Lascars, which means that the mail lines between Australia and Great Britain will be manned by black crews only. The labor organizations have established an agitation in favor of inserting a provision in the postal bill that only white persons be employed on mail steamers.

A VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Was Ill Only Three Days—Long Separation From Her Husband, Combined With the Death of Her Daughter, Had Completely Broken Her Spirit—Mr. Kruger Deeply Affected When the News Is Broken to Him.

Pretoria, July 22.—Mrs. Kruger, wife of Former President Kruger of the South African Republic, died Saturday afternoon of pneumonia after an illness of three days. She was 67 years old.

Mrs. Kruger's long separation from her husband, combined with the death of her daughter, Mrs. Smith, last week, had completely broken her spirit.

Mrs. Eloff and many other members of the Kruger family were at her bedside when she passed away.

Mrs. Kruger was the second wife of the Transvaal president. She was a Miss Du Plessis, a name of prominence in South Africa. Mr. Kruger's first wife was her aunt.

Mrs. Kruger was a typical Boer woman. She cared nothing for finery and in the days of prosperity at her home in Pretoria she had all the simplicity of manner and mode of living of the plainest woman of the land.

Mrs. Kruger was the mother of 16 children. Her daughters all married wealthy burghers and most of her sons took an interest in the army. She and the president lived in a modest little 2-story cottage painted white and covered with morning glory vines.

KRUGER DEEPLY AFFECTED.

London, July 22.—"Owing to the Sunday telegraph hours in Holland," says a dispatch to The Daily Mail from Hilversum, "Mr. Kruger was not informed of his wife's death until the evening. The news was broken to him by Dr. Heimans and Secretary Boichestein. Mr. Kruger, who had just returned from Hilversum church, burst into tears and asked to be alone. He exclaimed: 'She was a good wife. We quarreled only once and that was six months after we were married.' He prayed for a long time and is now calmly sleeping, his Bible beside his bed.

"The Transvaal and Orange Free State flags flying above the white villa were draped and half-masted. Shortly before the news came a crowd of country girls had been singing a folk-song outside the villa."

English Papers Extend Sympathy.

London, July 22.—The morning papers all publish dispatches confirming the death of Mrs. Kruger and all sympathize with Mr. Kruger. The Standard begins thus: "All British will feel deep sympathy with Mr. Kruger for the deep domestic affliction that has befallen him." This is followed by eulogies of Mrs. Kruger.

ANOTHER FLAG INCIDENT.

San Francisco, July 22.—News of a flag incident at Unalaska on July 4 has been received here. Among the decorations of the British ship Glenora in honor of the day was a British flag. It was hauled down by the British captain after United States Commissioner Whipple had twice ordered it down and made threats of arresting the master. Whipple reported his action to Captain Knox of the gunboat Concord, who immediately ordered a file of marines to proceed to the Glenora in a cutter. They boarded the Glenora and themselves hoisted the British flag of the British ship. At the same time a British flag was run to the masthead of the Concord, the guns of the warship boomed a salute to the flag to which Whipple had objected and the incident was closed.

Otherwise There May Be a Recrudescence of Trouble in China.

Tien Tsin, July 22.—Europeans here consider that a prevention of a speedy recrudescence of trouble depends entirely upon the firmness displayed by the powers. It is thought that this fact should be recognized in Europe and the United States.

The general feeling in Tien Tsin is that China is in nowise overawed or repentant. Li Hung Chang is reported to have adopted an offhand tone toward a member of the provisional government and to have talked confidently of ousting the provisional government soon. The Chinese have recommended cutting telegraph wires.

General Cushing Dead.

Washington, July 22.—Brigadier General Samuel T. Cushing, U. S. A., retired, formerly commissary general of subsistence, died here. He was appointed to the military academy from Rhode Island in 1855 and served through the Civil war. Near the close he was brevetted major for meritorious service. He entered the commissary branch in 1863 as a captain and rose to the rank of brigadier general and commissary general of subsistence Jan. 28, 1898. He was retired April 21 of the same year.

New York, July 22.—The bodies of the Misses Ida Elizabeth and Annette Colburn, the daughters of Arthur T. Colburn of Philadelphia, who were drowned with their father when the 2-masted yawl Venitzia sank in Long Island sound last Thursday, are now at the establishment of a Brooklyn undertaker awaiting orders from Philadelphia for final disposition. The bodies were found in the cabin of the Venitzia when she was raised Saturday and the vessel with the two dead was brought to Brooklyn by the steam derrick Champion, which raised the sunken craft. So far the bodies of only the two daughters have been found, leaving those of Mr. Colburn, Captain Flint and a sailor known as Frank Still to be located.

STATE OF UNREST.

Condition Now in Evidence in Official Circles of Northern Pacific.

St. Paul, July 22.—The official announcement of the election of James J. Hill to the directorate of the Northern Pacific road has caused a state of unrest in Northern Pacific circles.

"We are all up in the air," said one of the officials today. "Everybody is looking for something to drop."

Locally, among officials of other roads, it appears that the opinion prevails to some extent that the personnel of the Northern Pacific directorate does not provide for much power in the hands of Mr. Hill. Whatever intentions he may have in respect to the Northern Pacific system, he cannot, they claim, carry them out without the full consent of the board.

North Sea Coast Rising.

London, July 22.—"The rise of the North sea coast or the sinking of the sea level has been confirmed," says the Berlin correspondent of The Standard, "by observations at the mouth of the Kaiser Wilhelm canal. These show a decrease in the depth of the water at the mouth of the Elbe of 16 to 18 feet since 1898."

Rain Falls in Texas.

Houston, Tex., July 22.—During the past three days reports of good rains have been received from about 150 counties in Texas, about one-half of them in the cotton growing section. The rain extended well over South Texas.

MARTINELLI OFFICIATED.

St. Josephat's Church at Milwaukee Dedicated by the Cardinal.

Milwaukee, July 22.—Cardinal Martinelli dedicated St. Josephat's church, First and Lincoln avenues, in the presence of more than 4,000 people. The edifice had been in process of erection for five years and was built from the material of the old Chicago postoffice.

The edifice as it stands takes rank as the fourth Catholic church in the United States in point of grandeur. It was erected at an expense of $175,000, and yet it is stated on the highest authority that it could not be duplicated for $750,000. The ceremony at the church was of the most impressive stamp. Prelates of the Catholic institution, robed in the habiliments of their orders by the score, participated in the ritual subordinate to Cardinal Martinelli.

KANSAS is certainly a dry state just now, but whether it is due to Carrie Nation's threat or not is a question open for discussion.

THE Duluth Herald is said to be in full accord with Charlie Towne's statement that free silver is a dead issue. That certainly ought to settle the matter.

THE best time to get aquainted with the poor people of the county is when the board of equalization meets. They are all poor then, and what they have got is not worth much.

IF the country exchanges are getting stock in proportion to the size of the advertisements they are running for the Texas oil companies the publishers are in a fair way to become millionairs.

JENKINS, up on the M. & I. road, has a summer resort a few miles out on the banks of Whitfish lake and the proprietor advertises "prices will be made to please our patrons." This is something out of the usual order and should go down in history.

THERE is still hope for the noble red men if the report is true that Simon Bonga, a full blood Chippewa and a son of William Bonga, went to work as reported in the Great Northern round house at St. Paul as a wiper. Music From the Electric Arc.

A London electrician, Mr. W. Duddell, recently exhibited a novel musical instrument, composed of a series of electric arc lights, which played a popular air, says the Kansas City Times. When the current is passing through solid carbons, they give off a musical sound, and by placing a shunt across the carbons connected with the keyboard Mr. Duddell was able to vary the sounds through the scale of two octaves. The keyboard served to vary the self induction and capacity in the shunt circuit, and by employing four arcs the intensity of the sounds was made sufficiently great.

Mrs. Alice M. Towne, of Whittier, Cal., arrived in the city this noon for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Falconer. Mrs. Towne is a sister of Mrs. Falconer and they have not seen each other for thirty years.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Dunn arrived in the city today from the east to visit for a time with relatives. Mr. Dunn is a brother of the popular druggist, H. P. Dunn. Mrs. Dunn is a sister of Mrs. Henry Linnemann.

The Rev. M. L. Hutton, the new pastor of the First Congregational church, preached for the first time yesterday. He is an able speaker and his sermon yesterday was a great treat to the members of the church.

Edward DeMares, a saloon keeper of Bemidji, died at St. Joseph hospital Saturday evening after a protracted illness. The remains were taken to Bemidji this afternoon, two members of the Redmen order having arrived from there this morning to take charge of the arrangements.

Duncan McDonald was fined $7.40 in police court this morning on the charge of drunkenness.

Miss Frankie Vicent who has been visiting in the city for a week returned to her home today.

Mrs. G. F. Mitchell returned today from Fergus Falls, where she has been visiting for a short time.

Complaint is being made that those who think they have fast horses are making a race course out of Fourth street.

Dr. Murphy, of Minneapolis, who has been spending several days in this city visiting Misses Ella Groves and Mabel Harrison returned to his home today.

The students of the Summer school are making arrangements for a picnic, which is to be held on the extreme end of Kingwood st., tomorrow evening from 5 to 10. Any one is invited if they bring a lunch.

Rev. Allan Clark gave an address Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. on the subject "Bunyan." This is one of the series of addresses being delivered on Sunday afternoon on historical men. There were very few ladies out yesterday afternoon and Secretary Wilhelm states that the interest taken in the course or series is not as great as it should be. The series was first suggested by the ladies and the meetings were made open for ladies as well as gentlemen, but very few have attended so far.

Boisjoli Released.

"Jos. Boisjoli, who was taken to Bemidji about ten days ago on a charge of grand larceny, returned to this city Friday. The complaining witness was Geo. Smith, who claimed that Boisjoli sold some horses belonging to him (Smith) and appropriated the money. Smith failed to make out a case against Boisjoli, who had his hearing Thursday and he was discharged. Boisjoli had receipts showing all the money received and paid by him in the horse transaction, and also had witnesses to swear to his agreement with Smith. Boisjoli states that he will now bring a case against Smith for damages."

CASE DEVELOPES INTO SENSATION.

George Wolfe Will in All Likely Good be Pardoned By the President.

OTHERS ARE IMPLICATED.

Two Men in Hubbard County are Said to be the Real Offenders.

Another move has been made in the timber cutting game in which George W. Wolfe, of Motley, is involved, and the indications are that Mr. Wolfe has a shade the best of the deal.

It will be remembered that Mr. Wolfe was convicted in the United States court at Fergus Falls on the charge of cutting timber on government land in Hubbard county. He was sentenced to ninety days in the county jail and a fine of $900 was imposed by the court. Mr. Wolfe was brought to this city and was to serve his sentence in the county jail here but it will be remembered that he was taken to St. Paul by the authorities for the reason that they believed that Sheriff Erickson was giving him too much liberty. The fact in the matter is that one of the reasons set forth by those interested in Mr Wolfe, when they asked that he be given more liberty than the ordinary prisoner, was their belief in his innocence.

Mr. Wolfe has maintained from the start that he had nothing to do with the timber depredations charged in this case, At first a petition was circulated addressed to President McKinley asking that the prisoner be pardoned. This was withdrawn for a time but was again circulated and the same was sent to the president.

The papers it is understood have been returned to the United States court in St. Paul, for the recommendation or approval of Assistant United States attorney Purdy, who tried the case. Attorney J. P. Murphy of this city has been retained by Mr. Wolfe and he will go to St. Paul tonight to look after the prisoners' case.

An interesting feature of the matter and one in which Mr. Wolfe seems to have strengthened his case considerably is the fact that to back up the petition which was sent to the President some twelve or fifteen affidavits were secured from prominent people in Hubbard county in which they state that Wolfe did not cut the timber at all, and they go on to give the names of two parties who did the work.

These affidavits are very strong and it is understood that on their strength the United States authorities took the matter up, and have had warrants sworn out for the arrest of at least one of the two Hubbard county men. Their names are John Glasser and Matt Mikles. It is understood that the officials are now after Glasser and he will probably be arrested in a day or two.

The timber in question was cut on lots 7 and 8, Sec. 33, Twp. 141, in Hubbard county. The men live near Nevis postoffice and are very well known.

It is also claimed that if Attorney Purdy was not unfriendly to the Wolfe family that the prisoner would be pardoned at once. The father of George Wolfe, a respected old gentleman, has been doing his best to secure his son's pardon and it would now seem in the face of the strong evidence in hand that Attorney Purdy cannot but help recommend the pardon and forward the papers at once to Washington.

A Girl Twenty-two Years of Age Dies In A House of Ill Fame in This City.

A young girl, twenty-two years of age, who has been called since she came to this city not long ago, Ethel Williams, died at the house of ill-fame run by Myrtle Dale on the west side from the effects of a pelvic abcess.

The cause of this has not been investigated, but an autopsy will probably be held before the body is buried. The officials are trying to locate the girl's parents. She would not tell the doctor what her right name was when he asked her about half an hour before she died.

TALK OF MARRIAGE.

It Is Proper For the Man, but Not For the Girl, Apparently.

A man may remark on his intention to marry at some indefinite future time, when prudence or other considerations may make it possible or advisable, without having, as a rule, to run the gantlet of a chorus of impertinent and stupid would be witty remarks. But should a girl be bold enough, or, rather, natural and simple enough, to say the same thing what would be the result? Why, every one knows that she would be promptly sneered out of countenance.

And why? Is it immodest for a woman to express a determination to enter into a state which we are being continually reminded is a natural and honorable state, while it is modest and proper for a man to do so? Such a distinction would never be drawn except for the "cheapness" to which reference has been made.

If a man wants to marry, he can marry. If the first woman he asks refuses him, he has only to ask a second or perhaps a third or fourth. It would be safe to guarantee that within a month any man of fairly respectable life and position and appearance who cared to make the experiment could marry in his own class, could marry probably a woman much superior to himself.

But what about the girl who intends to marry "some day?" Is she not in a very different position from the man? Here is a girl of good character—much better than the man's, probably—average intelligence, average good looks. Theoretically she is free to marry whom she will, but is she? If she receives one distinct offer of marriage, she has had more than her share, according to the probable average.

The fact that by an unwritten law a woman must not take, and, indeed, does not want to take, the initiative has very little to do with the extremely limited choice which modern conditions impose upon English women.—Nineteenth Century.

Sarcastic.

Weather.

Generally fair tonight and warmer Tuesday.

KANSAS is certainly a dry state just now, but whether it is due to Carrie Nation's threat or not is a question open for discussion.

THE Duluth Herald is said to be in full accord with Charlie Towne's statement that free silver is a dead issue. That certainly ought to settle the matter.

THE best time to get aquainted with the poor people of the county is when the board of equalization meets. They are all poor then, and what they have got is not worth much.

IF the country exchanges are getting stock in proportion to the size of the advertisements they are running for the Texas oil companies the publishers are in a fair way to become millionairs.

JENKINS, up on the M. & I. road, has a summer resort a few miles out on the banks of Whitfish lake and the proprietor advertises "prices will be made to please our patrons." This is something out of the usual order and should go down in history.

THERE is still hope for the noble red men if the report is true that Simon Bonga, a full blood Chippewa and a son of William Bonga, went to work as reported in the Great Northern round house at St. Paul as a wiper. Usually Indians shun work as a Kentucky colonel does water, but this may be the entering wedge.

Music From the Electric Arc.

A London electrician, Mr. W. Duddell, recently exhibited a novel musical instrument, composed of a series of electric arc lights, which played a popular air, says the Kansas City Times. When the current is passing through solid carbons, they give off a musical sound, and by placing a shunt across the carbons connected with the keyboard Mr. Duddell was able to vary the sounds through the scale of two octaves. The keyboard served to vary the self induction and capacity in the shunt circuit, and by employing four arcs the intensity of the sounds was made sufficiently great.

CASE DEVELOPES INTO SENSATION.

George Wolfe Will in All Likely Good be Pardoned By the President.

OTHERS ARE IMPLICATED.

Two Men in Hubbard County are Said to be the Real Offenders.

Another move has been made in the timber cutting game in which George W. Wolfe, of Motley, is involved, and the indications are that Mr. Wolfe has a shade the best of the deal.

It will be remembered that Mr. Wolfe was convicted in the United States court at Fergus Falls on the charge of cutting timber on government land in Hubbard county. He was sentenced to ninety days in the county jail and a fine of $900 was imposed by the court. Mr. Wolfe was brought to this city and was to serve his sentence in the county jail here but it will be remembered that he was taken to St. Paul by the authorities for the reason that they believed that Sheriff Erickson was giving him too much liberty. The fact in the matter is that one of the reasons set forth by those interested in Mr Wolfe, when they asked that he be given more liberty than the ordinary prisoner, was their belief in his innocence.

Mr. Wolfe has maintained from the start that he had nothing to do with the timber depredations charged in this case, At first a petition was circulated addressed to President McKinley asking that the prisoner be pardoned. This was withdrawn for a time but was again circulated and the same was sent to the president.

The papers it is understood have been returned to the United States court in St. Paul, for the recommendation or approval of Assistant United States attorney Purdy, who tried the case. Attorney J. P. Murphy of this city has been retained by Mr. Wolfe and he will go to St. Paul tonight to look after the prisoners' case.

An interesting feature of the matter and one in which Mr. Wolfe seems to have strengthened his case considerably is the fact that to back up the petition which was sent to the President some twelve or fifteen affidavits were secured from prominent people in Hubbard county in which they state that Wolfe did not cut the timber at all, and they go on to give the names of two parties who did the work.

These affidavits are very strong and it is understood that on their strength the United States authorities took the matter up, and have had warrants sworn out for the arrest of at least one of the two Hubbard county men. Such a distinction would never be drawn except for the "cheapness" to which reference has been made.

If a man wants to marry, he can marry. If the first woman he asks refuses him, he has only to ask a second or perhaps a third or fourth. It would be safe to guarantee that within a month any man of fairly respectable life and position and appearance who cared to make the experiment could marry in his own class, could marry probably a woman much superior to himself.

But what about the girl who intends to marry "some day?" Is she not in a very different position from the man? Here is a girl of good character—much better than the man's, probably—average intelligence, average good looks. Theoretically she is free to marry whom she will, but is she? If she receives one distinct offer of marriage, she has had more than her share, according to the probable average.

The fact that by an unwritten law a woman must not take, and, indeed, does not want to take, the initiative has very little to do with the extremely limited choice which modern conditions impose upon English women.—Nineteenth Century.

Weather.

Generally fair tonight and warmer Tuesday.

KANSAS is certainly a dry state just now, but whether it is due to Carrie Nation's threat or not is a question open for discussion.

THE Duluth Herald is said to be in full accord with Charlie Towne's statement that free silver is a dead issue. That certainly ought to settle the matter.

THE best time to get aquainted with the poor people of the county is when the board of equalization meets. They are all poor then, and what they have got is not worth much.

IF the country exchanges are getting stock in proportion to the size of the advertisements they are running for the Texas oil companies the publishers are in a fair way to become millionairs.

JENKINS, up on the M. & I. road, has a summer resort a few miles out on the banks of Whitfish lake and the proprietor advertises "prices will be made to please our patrons." This is something out of the usual order and should go down in history.

THERE is still hope for the noble red men if the report is true that Simon Bonga, a full blood Chippewa and a son of William Bonga, went to work as reported in the Great Northern round house at St. Paul as a wiper. Usually Indians shun work as a Kentucky colonel does water, but this may be the entering wedge.

Music From the Electric Arc.

A London electrician, Mr. W. Duddell, recently exhibited a novel musical instrument, composed of a series of electric arc lights, which played a popular air, says the Kansas City Times. When the current is passing through solid carbons, they give off a musical sound, and by placing a shunt across the carbons connected with the keyboard Mr. Duddell was able to vary the sounds through the scale of two octaves. The keyboard served to vary the self induction and capacity in the shunt circuit, and by employing four arcs the intensity of the sounds was made sufficiently great.

Boisjoli Released.

"Jos. Boisjoli, who was taken to Bemidji about ten days ago on a charge of grand larceny, returned to this city Friday. The complaining witness was Geo. Smith, who claimed that Boisjoli sold some horses belonging to him (Smith) and appropriated the money. Smith failed to make out a case against Boisjoli, who had his hearing Thursday and he was discharged. Boisjoli had receipts showing all the money received and paid by him in the horse transaction, and also had witnesses to swear to his agreement with Smith. Boisjoli states that he will now bring a case against Smith for damages."

CASE DEVELOPES INTO SENSATION.

George Wolfe Will in All Likely Good be Pardoned By the President.

OTHERS ARE IMPLICATED.

Two Men in Hubbard County are Said to be the Real Offenders.

Another move has been made in the timber cutting game in which George W. Wolfe, of Motley, is involved, and the indications are that Mr. Wolfe has a shade the best of the deal.

It will be remembered that Mr. Wolfe was convicted in the United States court at Fergus Falls on the charge of cutting timber on government land in Hubbard county. He was sentenced to ninety days in the county jail and a fine of $900 was imposed by the court. Mr. Wolfe was brought to this city and was to serve his sentence in the county jail here but it will be remembered that he was taken to St. Paul by the authorities for the reason that they believed that Sheriff Erickson was giving him too much liberty. The fact in the matter is that one of the reasons set forth by those interested in Mr Wolfe, when they asked that he be given more liberty than the ordinary prisoner, was their belief in his innocence.

Mr. Wolfe has maintained from the start that he had nothing to do with the timber depredations charged in this case, At first a petition was circulated addressed to President McKinley asking that the prisoner be pardoned. This was withdrawn for a time but was again circulated and the same was sent to the president.

The papers it is understood have been returned to the United States court in St. Paul, for the recommendation or approval of Assistant United States attorney Purdy, who tried the case. Attorney J. P. Murphy of this city has been retained by Mr. Wolfe and he will go to St. Paul tonight to look after the prisoners' case.

An interesting feature of the matter and one in which Mr. Wolfe seems to have strengthened his case considerably is the fact that to back up the petition which was sent to the President some twelve or fifteen affidavits were secured from prominent people in Hubbard county in which they state that Wolfe did not cut the timber at all, and they go on to give the names of two parties who did the work.

These affidavits are very strong and it is understood that on their strength the United States authorities took the matter up, and have had warrants sworn out for the arrest of at least one of the two Hubbard county men. Their names are John Glasser and Matt Mikles. It is understood that the officials are now after Glasser and he will probably be arrested in a day or two.

The timber in question was cut on lots 7 and 8, Sec. 33, Twp. 141, in Hubbard county. The men live near Nevis postoffice and are very well known.

It is also claimed that if Attorney Purdy was not unfriendly to the Wolfe family that the prisoner would be pardoned at once. The father of George Wolfe, a respected old gentleman, has been doing his best to secure his son's pardon and it would now seem in the face of the strong evidence in hand that Attorney Purdy cannot but help recommend the pardon and forward the papers at once to Washington.

A Girl Twenty-two Years of Age Dies In A House of Ill Fame in This City.

A young girl, twenty-two years of age, who has been called since she came to this city not long ago, Ethel Williams, died at the house of ill-fame run by Myrtle Dale on the west side from the effects of a pelvic abcess.

The cause of this has not been investigated, but an autopsy will probably be held before the body is buried. The officials are trying to locate the girl's parents. She would not tell the doctor what her right name was when he asked her about half an hour before she died.

TALK OF MARRIAGE.

A man may remark on his intention to marry at some indefinite future time, when prudence or other considerations may make it possible or advisable, without having, as a rule, to run the gantlet of a chorus of impertinent and stupid would be witty remarks. But should a girl be bold enough, or, rather, natural and simple enough, to say the same thing what would be the result? Why, every one knows that she would be promptly sneered out of countenance.

And why? Is it immodest for a woman to express a determination to enter into a state which we are being continually reminded is a natural and honorable state, while it is modest and proper for a man to do so? Such a distinction would never be drawn except for the "cheapness" to which reference has been made.

If a man wants to marry, he can marry. If the first woman he asks refuses him, he has only to ask a second or perhaps a third or fourth. It would be safe to guarantee that within a month any man of fairly respectable life and position and appearance who cared to make the experiment could marry in his own class, could marry probably a woman much superior to himself.

But what about the girl who intends to marry "some day?" Is she not in a very different position from the man? THE INDIAN WAS SURELY HOT STUFF

BUT ONE DINKY HIT WAS MADE

Derocher Pitched a Very Good Game Although He Was Rather Wild.

Aitkin 4; Brainerd 0.

One of the best base ball games witnessed for some time was played yesterday afternoon at the Swartz driving park between the locals and the Aitkin team. The home team did not win, but that did not deteriorate from the many good features of the game.

It was a pitchers' battle from begining to end and while Derocher, who was in the box for Brainerd, struck out four more men than Rogers, who was doing the twirling for Aitkin, the locals did not seem to be able to make many hits and consequently failed to score throughout the game.

There was really but one earned run during the whole game and that was made on Myer's two-bagger in the sixth inning. The game was lost simply by the inability of the members of the home team to land on E. Rogers' balls. Even Connors, who can always be depended upon to drive out a few, did not appear to be in the game at all yesterday so far as the batting was concerned. But one hit was credited to the home team and that was by young J. Boyle in the seventh inning. Derocher pitched a very good game throughout, but he was at times very wild.

There were several errors by the home team which is an indication that a little team work will not hurt the boys any.

In the first inning Kast for Aitkin was the first man up. He walked but Burns who followed was thrown out from Derocher to Peterson. E. Rogers singled and Kast scored. Derocher then seemed to get down to business and struck out T. Honnold and Krelwitz. For Brainerd Peterson was the first man up. He struck a slow grounder out toward the first bag and it was promptly and easily taken in by Chapman. Finn struck out and Connors only got a light tap at the ball and was thrown out from E. Rogers to Chapman.

In the second inning Chapman came up and he looked daggers but fanned the air three times. J. Honnold drove a skyrocket out to center but Murphy was there and took it in. Myers got to first on an error by Connors but it did him no good for C. Rogers went out from P. Boyle to Peterson, which by the way was a very clever throw by this young player. It looked like business in the last of the second when P. Boyle drove one way out into center field but Krelwitz fielded the ball and managed to get it. J. Boyle and Dressen both went out from J. Honnold to Chapman.

In the third there was a sucession of errors and as a result another score was made by the boys from up the line. Kast landed at first safely and when stealing bases Dressen threw a ball to Finn who muffed it and he in turn threw a wild one to P. Boyle and in the melee Kast scored. It was easy money during the rest of the first half of the inning. Burns flyed out to Finn and E. Rogers and T. Honnold struck out. For Brainerd three men were fanned in succession. They were Holliday, Murphy and Derocher.

In the fourth Krelwitz started things going by getting a nice single. He was followed by Chapman who also got a hit, the ball dropping in the right field and it looked as though neither Peterson or Halladay knew which one should go after the ball. There were two men on bases and no one out and something had to be done. Both men advanced the one to second and the other to third, but there they died for Derocher did some great work here striking out J. Honnold and Myers. C. Rogers' fly went to the wrong garden for Murphy the man in center is not to be triffled with. He took in the fly and the side was out. For Brainerd Peterson went out from C. Rogers to Chapman, Finn struck out, Connors got his base on balls as did also P. Boyle. The two men advanced the one to second and the other to third and it looked as though Brainerd would score but there were two men out and J. Boyle fanned the air three times.

In the fifth Kast singled, Burns struck out, E. Rogers went out from Derocher to Peterson and T. Honnold struck out, Kast failing to get a score on the play. For Brainerd Dressen came up and went out from J. Honnold to Chapman, Halladay struck out and Murphy went out from E. Rogers to Chapman.

In the sixth the Aitkin boys did some hammering again and it was in this inning that the only two bagger in the game was made. Krelwitz up struck out, but Chapman singled, J. Honnold sandwiched in with a strike-out but Myers came up and whaled the stuffing out of the old sphere sending her out for a two bagger and scoring Chapman. This was really the only earned run in the game, C. Rogers went out from J. Boyle to Peterson. For Brainerd Derocher and Peterson each went out from J. Honnold to Chapman and Finn went out from E. Rogers to Chapman. It seemed impossible for them to get the ball out of the infield.

In the seventh Derocher started out again with his good pitching and struck out both Kast and Burns as fast as they could come up. E. Rogers got his base on balls but died at second for T. Honnold went out from P. Boyle to Peterson. Connors was the first man up for Brainerd in the seventh and he was put out from J. Honnold to Chapman. P. Boyle struck out and J. Boyle was caught trying to steal second.

In the eighth Krelwitz went out from Dressen to Peterson and J. Honnold flyed out to Spencer in right field, Spencer having been substituted for Halladay. For Brainerd Dressen came up and fanned out, Spencer flyed out to Kast and Murphy went out from E. Rogers to Chapman.

In the ninth it was ever the same old story and Aitkin got another run. Myers was the first man up and went out from P. Boyle to Peterson. C. Rogers flyed out to Murphy in center but Kast came up and singled and in the few succeeding plays he got home. Burns was caught out at second. The last hope for Brainerd went shimmering away when Derocher the first man up failed to land on the ball and went out from E. Rogers to Chapman. Peterson followed suit and so did Finn and the stuff was off.

The following is the score by innings:

ENTERPRISING AT OAK LAWN.

An Enthusiastic School Meeting on Saturday Evening---John Britton Elected Director.

On Saturday evening there was a very largely attended meeting at the school house in District No. 4, Oak Lawn township. The meeting had been called for the purpose of electing a director on the school board. John Britton was elected by an overwhelming majority.

The board of directors were authorized to make extensive improvements to the school building and $500 will be expended in this way. The board was also instructed not to engage teachers in the future who do not hold first grade certificates.

WAS MURDERED AT VALLEY CITY

It Is Thought that Holm Who Was Killed Recently is from Brainerd.

OFFICIALS ASK FOR BROTHER.

Holm's Slayer Has Confessed to The Crime and Has Been Held.

Who is August Holm? This seems to be the all pervading question which the officers have to contend with in this city at the present time. A man by this name has been murdered at Valley City, N. D., and it is thought that his home was in Brainerd.

A few days ago letters were received in the city from the authorities making inquiry regarding the man and asking for the address of relatives, etc., so that the details of the murder can be sent to them.

It seems that a body of a man was found floating in the river at Valley City some time ago, but the features of the man were badly decomposed and he could not be identified by any one at Valley City. Some of the effects on his person, however, disclosed the fact that his name was Holm and it was afterwards learned that it was August Holm.

The mystery surrounding the man's death remained unsolved for a long time, but a little detective work on the part of the officials at Valley City connected a man by the name of Frank Vail with the crime. He was a herder on the Nester farm near that place and he was put under arrest on July 14, and it is understood that he has afterwards confessed to the crime.

At first he denied all knowledge of Holm, which is now acknoledged to be the name of the murdered man, but finally after about three hours of questioning he admitted that he had done the killing and talked quite freely. He claims the act was done in self defense. His story is that he had made a deal with Holm to buy his team and wagon and that the matter was to be closed up on the morning of the 5th. Holm came to his shack and while talking about the matter attacked him with a revolver and shot at him twice.

Then Vail closed in, took the revolver away from Holm and shot the latter in self defense. His theory is that Holm knew that he had the money with which to purchase the team on his person and wanted to kill him for it.

One weak feature of Vail's story is the fact that the bullet entered Holm's head behind the right ear and passed out through the left eye, tearing the eye from the socket. The bullet was a large one and Vail is known to have a 44-calibre revolver.

After killing Holm Vail says he came to town with the intention of giving himself up to the officers, but the longer he thought of the matter the more alarmed he became and he finally decided that the only safe course to pursue was to conceal the body and say nothing. He says he let the body lay where it fell until night and then weighed it down with stones and threw it in the river.

When Holm arrived at North Valley City he was accompanied by a man named George Francis, who also had a team. They met on the road from Minnesota and were traveling together. Francis was looking for work and Vail told him to apply to Fred Kuder, who lives ten or twelve miles up the river from Valley City, telling him that Kuder wanted a man badly and would pay good wages.

Francis went up to Kuder's place a day or so before the killing and when he arrived there found that the story was false and that Kuder did not need a man. The officers think that Vail premeditated the killing and wanted to separate the men so that he could have a better chance at Holm. They spent some time trailing up Francis and finally found him working for Levi Etzell. He has fully identified Holm's property and will be a witness for the prosecution.

UNION MEETING.

A Very Interesting and Instructive Meeting Held Last Night in the First M. E. Church.

There was a very interesting union meeting at the First M. E. church last night, the young people from the Presbyterian, First Congregational, Baptist, Peoples and German Evangelical churches joining in the services.

An excellent program has been prepared for the event and this with the special music made the evening a very interesting and profitable one to the young people.

Pillager Post Reflections.

Reports from the summer school at Brainerd are to the effect that it is the best of its kind that has ever been held in this section of the state.

Reuben Rearick was initiated into the Woodmen lodge on Saturday evening, and was up and about again Sunday morning as if nothing had happened.

The commotion over in Crow Wing county wherein the commissioners request the removal of County Surveyor R. K. Whiteley from office reminds the people of Cass county that while we were attached to Crow Wing there were several county roads laid out in this county which have never been put on record, and they were laid out at a considerable expense, too. We are not versed in the matter of the duties of officials for unorganized counties, but it would seem that it would be the duty of the commissioners to at least see that the proper records were made. In the present unpleasantness perhaps there is a little fault on both sides of the house, as there likely was here.

Five men's meetings were held during the month, one hundred and twenty-five young men used the gymnasium, ten took instructions in the gymnasium, 2,888 men visited the rooms, 169 attended the Sunday meetings, 475 availed themselves of the bathing privileges and 125 people wrote letters from the writing desk.

CRUISER BADLY HURT.

A. G. Stewart the Victim in a Runaway Yesterday Afternoon at Pine River.

Dr. Thabes returned this morning from Pine River where he was called last evening to dress the wounds of a man by the name of A. G. Stewart, cruiser for the Pine Tree Lumber Co., who was badly hurt in a runaway accident yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock.

He was driving from Pine River and was about five miles away from the town when the team became unmanageable. The horses running at a terrific rate of speed threw the buggy up against a large pole and Mr. Stewart was thrown out, his head also hitting the pole.

The doctor dressed the wound and while he states that it is a very bad affliction he does not think it will result seriously. The skin on the forehead was laid open clear to the skull and there were other bad wounds on the head.

When the man was picked up he was unconscious and for a time it was thought he would not survive until the doctor reached there.

THE INDIAN WAS SURELY HOT STUFF

BUT ONE DINKY HIT WAS MADE

Derocher Pitched a Very Good Game Although He Was Rather Wild.

Aitkin 4; Brainerd 0.

One of the best base ball games witnessed for some time was played yesterday afternoon at the Swartz driving park between the locals and the Aitkin team. The home team did not win, but that did not deteriorate from the many good features of the game.

It was a pitchers' battle from begining to end and while Derocher, who was in the box for Brainerd, struck out four more men than Rogers, who was doing the twirling for Aitkin, the locals did not seem to be able to make many hits and consequently failed to score throughout the game.

There was really but one earned run during the whole game and that was made on Myer's two-bagger in the sixth inning. The game was lost simply by the inability of the members of the home team to land on E. Rogers' balls. Even Connors, who can always be depended upon to drive out a few, did not appear to be in the game at all yesterday so far as the batting was concerned. But one hit was credited to the home team and that was by young J. Boyle in the seventh inning. Derocher pitched a very good game throughout, but he was at times very wild.

There were several errors by the home team which is an indication that a little team work will not hurt the boys any.

In the first inning Kast for Aitkin was the first man up. He walked but Burns who followed was thrown out from Derocher to Peterson. E. Rogers singled and Kast scored. Derocher then seemed to get down to business and struck out T. Honnold and Krelwitz. For Brainerd Peterson was the first man up. He struck a slow grounder out toward the first bag and it was promptly and easily taken in by Chapman. Finn struck out and Connors only got a light tap at the ball and was thrown out from E. Rogers to Chapman.

In the second inning Chapman came up and he looked daggers but fanned the air three times. J. Honnold drove a skyrocket out to center but Murphy was there and took it in. Myers got to first on an error by Connors but it did him no good for C. Rogers went out from P. Boyle to Peterson, which by the way was a very clever throw by this young player. It looked like business in the last of the second when P. Boyle drove one way out into center field but Krelwitz fielded the ball and managed to get it. J. Boyle and Dressen both went out from J. Honnold to Chapman.

In the third there was a suceession of errors and as a result another score was made by the boys from up the line. Kast landed at first safely and when stealing bases Dressen threw a ball to Finn who muffed it and he in turn threw a wild one to P. Boyle and in the melee Kast scored. It was easy money during the rest of the first half of the inning. Burns flyed out to Finn and E. Rogers and T. Honnold struck out. For Brainerd three men were fanned in succession. They were Holliday, Murphy and Derocher.

In the fourth Krelwitz started things going by getting a nice single. He was followed by Chapman who also got a hit, the ball dropping in the right field and it looked as though neither Peterson or Halladay knew which one should go after the ball. There were two men on bases and no one out and something had to be done. Both men advanced the one to second and the other to third, but there they died for Derocher did some great work here striking out J. Honnold and Myers. C. Rogers' fly went to the wrong garden for Murphy the man in center is not to be triffled with. He took in the fly and the side was out. For Brainerd Peterson went out from C. Rogers to Chapman, Finn struck out, Connors got his base on balls as did also P. Boyle. The two men advanced the one to second and the other to third and it looked as though Brainerd would score but there were two men out and J. Boyle fanned the air three times.

In the fifth Kast singled, Burns struck out, E. Rogers went out from Derocher to Peterson and T. Honnold struck out, Kast failing to get a score on the play. For Brainerd Dressen came up and went out from J. Honnold to Chapman, Halladay struck out and Murphy went out from E. Rogers to Chapman.

In the sixth the Aitkin boys did some hammering again and it was in this inning that the only two bagger in the game was made. Krelwitz up struck out, but Chapman singled, J. Honnold sandwiched in with a strike-out but Myers came up and whaled the stuffing out of the old sphere sending her out for a two bagger and scoring Chapman. This was really the only earned run in the game, C. Rogers went out from J. Boyle to Peterson. For Brainerd Derocher and Peterson each went out from J. Honnold to Chapman and Finn went out from E. Rogers to Chapman. It seemed impossible for them to get the ball out of the infield.

In the seventh Derocher started out again with his good pitching and struck out both Kast and Burns as fast as they could come up. E. Rogers got his base on balls but died at second for T. Honnold went out from P. Boyle to Peterson. Connors was the first man up for Brainerd in the seventh and he was put out from J. Honnold to Chapman. P. Boyle struck out and J. Boyle was caught trying to steal second.

In the eighth Krelwitz went out from Dressen to Peterson and J. Honnold flyed out to Spencer in right field, Spencer having been substituted for Halladay. For Brainerd Dressen came up and fanned out, Spencer flyed out to Kast and Murphy went out from E. Rogers to Chapman.

In the ninth it was ever the same old story and Aitkin got another run. Myers was the first man up and went out from P. Boyle to Peterson. C. Rogers flyed out to Murphy in center but Kast came up and singled and in the few succeeding plays he got home. Burns was caught out at second. The last hope for Brainerd went shimmering away when Derocher the first man up failed to land on the ball and went out from E. Rogers to Chapman. Peterson followed suit and so did Finn and the stuff was off.

The following is the score by innings:

Holm's Slayer Has Confessed to The Crime and Has Been Held.

Who is August Holm? This seems to be the all pervading question which the officers have to contend with in this city at the present time. A man by this name has been murdered at Valley City, N. D., and it is thought that his home was in Brainerd.

A few days ago letters were received in the city from the authorities making inquiry regarding the man and asking for the address of relatives, etc., so that the details of the murder can be sent to them.

It seems that a body of a man was found floating in the river at Valley City some time ago, but the features of the man were badly decomposed and he could not be identified by any one at Valley City. Some of the effects on his person, however, disclosed the fact that his name was Holm and it was afterwards learned that it was August Holm.

The mystery surrounding the man's death remained unsolved for a long time, but a little detective work on the part of the officials at Valley City connected a man by the name of Frank Vail with the crime. He was a herder on the Nester farm near that place and he was put under arrest on July 14, and it is understood that he has afterwards confessed to the crime.

At first he denied all knowledge of Holm, which is now acknoledged to be the name of the murdered man, but finally after about three hours of questioning he admitted that he had done the killing and talked quite freely. He claims the act was done in self defense. His story is that he had made a deal with Holm to buy his team and wagon and that the matter was to be closed up on the morning of the 5th. Holm came to his shack and while talking about the matter attacked him with a revolver and shot at him twice.

Then Vail closed in, took the revolver away from Holm and shot the latter in self defense. His theory is that Holm knew that he had the money with which to purchase the team on his person and wanted to kill him for it.

One weak feature of Vail's story is the fact that the bullet entered Holm's head behind the right ear and passed out through the left eye, tearing the eye from the socket. The bullet was a large one and Vail is known to have a 44-calibre revolver.

After killing Holm Vail says he came to town with the intention of giving himself up to the officers, but the longer he thought of the matter the more alarmed he became and he finally decided that the only safe course to pursue was to conceal the body and say nothing. He says he let the body lay where it fell until night and then weighed it down with stones and threw it in the river.

When Holm arrived at North Valley City he was accompanied by a man named George Francis, who also had a team. They met on the road from Minnesota and were traveling together. Francis was looking for work and Vail told him to apply to Fred Kuder, who lives ten or twelve miles up the river from Valley City, telling him that Kuder wanted a man badly and would pay good wages.

Francis went up to Kuder's place a day or so before the killing and when he arrived there found that the story was false and that Kuder did not need a man. The officers think that Vail premeditated the killing and wanted to separate the men so that he could have a better chance at Holm. They spent some time trailing up Francis and finally found him working for Levi Etzell. He has fully identified Holm's property and will be a witness for the prosecution.

Aitkin 4; Brainerd 0.

One of the best base ball games witnessed for some time was played yesterday afternoon at the Swartz driving park between the locals and the Aitkin team. The home team did not win, but that did not deteriorate from the many good features of the game.

It was a pitchers' battle from begining to end and while Derocher, who was in the box for Brainerd, struck out four more men than Rogers, who was doing the twirling for Aitkin, the locals did not seem to be able to make many hits and consequently failed to score throughout the game.

There was really but one earned run during the whole game and that was made on Myer's two-bagger in the sixth inning. The game was lost simply by the inability of the members of the home team to land on E. Rogers' balis. Even Connors, who can always be depended upon to drive out a few, did not appear to be in the game at all yesterday so far as the batting was concerned. But one hit was credited to the home team and that was by young J. Boyle in the seventh inning. Derocher pitched a very good game throughout, but he was at times very wild.

There were several errors by the home team which is an indication that a little team work will not hurt the boys any.

In the first inning Kast for Aitkin was the first man up. He walked but Burns who followed was thrown out from Derocher to Peterson. E. Rogers singled and Kast scored. Derocher then seemed to get down to business and struck out T. Honnold and Krelwitz. For Brainerd Peterson was the first man up. He struck a slow grounder out toward the first bag and it was promptly and easily taken in by Chapman. Finn struck out and Connors only got a light tap at the ball and was thrown out from E. Rogers to Chapman.

In the second inning Chapman came up and he looked daggers but fanned the air three times. J. Honnold drove a skyrocket out to center but Murphy was there and took it in. Myers got to first on an error by Connors but it did him no good for C. Rogers went out from P. Boyle to Peterson, which by the way was a very clever throw by this young player. It looked like business in the last of the second when P. Boyle drove one way out into center field but Krelwitz fielded the ball and managed to get it. J. Boyle and Dressen both went out from J. Honnold to Chapman.

In the third there was a succession of errors and as a result another score was made by the boys from up the line. Kast landed at first safely and when stealing bases Dressen threw a ball to Finn who muffed it and he in turn threw a wild one to P. Boyle and in the melee Kast scored. It was easy money during the rest of the first half of the inning. Burns flyed out to Finn and E. Rogers and T. Honnold struck out. For Brainerd three men were fanned in succession. They were Holliday, Murphy and Derocher.

In the fourth Krelwitz started things going by getting a nice single. He was followed by Chapman who also got a hit, the ball dropping in the right field and it looked as though neither Peterson or Halladay knew which one should go after the ball. There were two men on bases and no one out and something had to be done. Both men advanced the one to second and the other to third, but there they died for Derocher did some great work here striking out J. Honnold and Myers. C. Rogers' fly went to the wrong garden for Murphy the man in center is not to be trifled with. He took in the fly and the side was out. For Brainerd Peterson went out from C. Rogers to Chapman, Finn struck out, Connors got his base on balls as did also P. Boyle. The two men advanced the one to second and the other to third and it looked as though Brainerd would score but there were two men out and J. Boyle fanned the air three times.

In the fifth Kast singled, Burns struck out, E. Rogers went out from Derocher to Peterson and T. Honnold struck out, Kast failing to get a score on the play. For Brainerd Dressen came up and went out from J. Honnold to Chapman, Halladay struck out and Murphy went out from E. Rogers to Chapman.

In the sixth the Aitkin boys did some hammering again and it was in this inning that the only two bagger in the game was made. Krelwitz up struck out, but Chapman singled, J. Honnold sandwiched in with a strike-out but Myers came up and whaled the stuffing out of the old sphere sending her out for a two bagger and scoring Chapman. This was really the only earned run in the game, C. Rogers went out from J. Boyle to Peterson. For Brainerd Derocher and Peterson each went out from J. Honnold to Chapman and Finn went out from E. Rogers to Chapman. It seemed impossible for them to get the ball out of the infield.

In the seventh Derocher started out again with his good pitching and struck out both Kast and Burns as fast as they could come up. E. Rogers got his base on balls but died at second for T. Honnold went out from P. Boyle to Peterson. Connors was the first man up for Brainerd in the seventh and he was put out from J. Honnold to Chapman. P. Boyle struck out and J. Boyle was caught trying to steal second.

In the eighth Krelwitz went out from Dressen to Peterson and J. Honnold flyed out to Spencer in right field, Spencer having been substituted for Halladay. For Brainerd Dressen came up and fanned out, Spencer flyed out to Kast and Murphy went out from E. Rogers to Chapman.

In the ninth it was ever the same old story and Aitkin got another run. Myers was the first man up and went out from P. Boyle to Peterson. C. Rogers flyed out to Murphy in center but Kast came up and singled and in the few succeeding plays he got home. Burns was caught out at second. The last hope for Brainerd went shimmering away when Derocher the first man up failed to land on the ball and went out from E. Rogers to Chapman. Peterson followed suit and so did Finn and the stuff was off.

The following is the score by innings:

Holm's Slayer Has Confessed to The Crime and Has Been Held.

Who is August Holm? This seems to be the all pervading question which the officers have to contend with in this city at the present time. A man by this name has been murdered at Valley City, N. D., and it is thought that his home was in Brainerd.

A few days ago letters were received in the city from the authorities making inquiry regarding the man and asking for the address of relatives, etc., so that the details of the murder can be sent to them.

It seems that a body of a man was found floating in the river at Valley City some time ago, but the features of the man were badly decomposed and he could not be identified by any one at Valley City. Some of the effects on his person, however, disclosed the fact that his name was Holm and it was afterwards learned that it was August Holm.

The mystery surrounding the man's death remained unsolved for a long time, but a little detective work on the part of the officials at Valley City connected a man by the name of Frank Vail with the crime. He was a herder on the Nester farm near that place and he was put under arrest on July 14, and it is understood that he has afterwards confessed to the crime.

At first he denied all knowledge of Holm, which is now acknoledged to be the name of the murdered man, but finally after about three hours of questioning he admitted that he had done the killing and talked quite freely. He claims the act was done in self defense. His story is that he had made a deal with Holm to buy his team and wagon and that the matter was to be closed up on the morning of the 5th. Holm came to his shack and while talking about the matter attacked him with a revolver and shot at him twice.

Then Vail closed in, took the revolver away from Holm and shot the latter in self defense. His theory is that Holm knew that he had the money with which to purchase the team on his person and wanted to kill him for it.

One weak feature of Vail's story is the fact that the bullet entered Holm's head behind the right ear and passed out through the left eye, tearing the eye from the socket. The bullet was a large one and Vail is known to have a 44-calibre revolver.

After killing Holm Vail says he came to town with the intention of giving himself up to the officers, but the longer he thought of the matter the more alarmed he became and he finally decided that the only safe course to pursue was to conceal the body and say nothing. He says he let the body lay where it fell until night and then weighed it down with stones and threw it in the river.

When Holm arrived at North Valley City he was accompanied by a man named George Francis, who also had a team. They met on the road from Minnesota and were traveling together. Francis was looking for work and Vail told him to apply to Fred Kuder, who lives ten or twelve miles up the river from Valley City, telling him that Kuder wanted a man badly and would pay good wages.

Francis went up to Kuder's place a day or so before the killing and when he arrived there found that the story was false and that Kuder did not need a man. The officers think that Vail premeditated the killing and wanted to separate the men so that he could have a better chance at Holm. They spent some time trailing up Francis and finally found him working for Levi Etzell. He has fully identified Holm's property and will be a witness for the prosecution.

UNION MEETING.

A Very Interesting and Instructive Meeting Held Last Night in the First M. E. Church.

There was a very interesting union meeting at the First M. E. church last night, the young people from the Presbyterian, First Congregational, Baptist, Peoples and German Evangelical churches joining in the services.

An excellent program has been prepared for the event and this with the special music made the evening a very interesting and profitable one to the young people.

Pillager Post Reflections.

Reports from the summer school at Brainerd are to the effect that it is the best of its kind that has ever been held in this section of the state.

Reuben Rearick was initiated into the Woodmen lodge on Saturday evening, and was up and about again Sunday morning as if nothing had happened.

The commotion over in Crow Wing county wherein the commissioners request the removal of County Surveyor R. K. Whiteley from office reminds the people of Cass county that while we were attached to Crow Wing there were several county roads laid out in this county which have never been put on record, and they were laid out at a considerable expense, too. We are not versed in the matter of the duties of officials for unorganized counties, but it would seem that it would be the duty of the commissioners to at least see that the proper records were made. In the present unpleasantness perhaps there is a little fault on both sides of the house, as there likely was here.

BUSY AT Y. M. C. A.

Report For The Month of June Shows That This Popular Institution Is A Scene of Activity.

Secretary Wilhelm has just completed the report for the month of June of some interesting data in reference to the work at the Y. M. C. A.

Five men's meetings were held during the month, one hundred and twenty-five young men used the gymnasium, ten took instructions in the gymnasium, 2,888 men visited the rooms, 169 attended the Sunday meetings, 475 availed themselves of the bathing privileges and 125 people wrote letters from the writing desk.

CRUISER BADLY HURT.

A. G. Stewart the Victim in a Runaway Yesterday Afternoon at Pine River.

Dr. Thabes returned this morning from Pine River where he was called last evening to dress the wounds of a man by the name of A. G. Stewart, cruiser for the Pine Tree Lumber Co., who was badly hurt in a runaway accident yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock.

He was driving from Pine River and was about five miles away from the town when the team became unmanageable. The horses running at a terrific rate of speed threw the buggy up against a large pole and Mr. Stewart was thrown out, his head also hitting the pole.

The doctor dressed the wound and while he states that it is a very bad affliction he does not think it will result seriously. The skin on the forehead was laid open clear to the skull and there were other bad wounds on the head.

When the man was picked up he was unconscious and for a time it was thought he would not survive until the doctor reached there.

DAVID HARUM

Will be Presented at the M. E. Church Wednesday Evening, July 24th.

The Ladies of the M. E. church have secured Edward H. Frye, an impersonator of rare ability, who will present the original "David Harum" at the M. E. church in Brainerd, on Wednesday evening, July 24. Those who have read David Harum, will, we are sure, enjoy the presentation, and those who have not will be behind the times should they fail to spend the evening in company with the inimitable David. Mr. Frye will also give readings from Rip Van Winkle. Mr. Frye comes highly recommended as will be seen from press notes published in these columns. General admission 25 cents.

DENOUNCES C. A. TOWNE.

Johnson of Kansas Has a Poor Opinion of the Minnesotan.

Kansas City, July 22.—Charles A. Towne of Minnesota was branded as a bolter by J. G. Johnson, chairman of the executive committee of the Democratic national committee in an interview here.

"We didn't lose anything when we lost Towne." He said: "Towne is only a sort of a Webster Davis, anyway. The Republican party didn't lose anything when it lost Webster Davis and it won't gain anything when it gets him back. He flopped from Republicanism for the same reason that Towne has flopped from Democracy. Because he was disgruntled. The Democratic party has no use for the disgruntled element."

Chairman Johnson was very bitter in his denunciation of "lackadaisical Democrats" who, he says, are trying to reorganize the party to their own selfish ends and says no bolter should dictate the policy of the party however gloomy the outlook may be.

TWELVE TO A CLAIM.

Feared Disorder and Distress Will Follow Kiowa-Comanche Opening

Fort Sill, O. T., July 22.—Disorder and distress will, it is feared, follow the actual opening of the Kiowa-Comanche reservation on Aug. 6. It is now estimated that fully 150,000 people will have registered for a chance to secure one of the 13,000 claims to be awarded by lottery when the registration booths close on July 26. Thousands of persons now on the reservation who are neither mechanics nor artisans and who have little or no money announce their intention of locating around Lawton if they fail to win a claim. Campers who came in prairie schooners by the thousands generally brought with them provisions sufficient to last only from five to ten days. Continued drouth has caused the water to be restricted and for days a hot wind has blown over the prairies and the temperature has averaged over the 100 mark. With these conditions before them many are already beginning to grumble, and when this is followed by disappointment over failure to draw a lucky number the hope that bore up many will doubtless give way to more serious conditions.

OPERATE IN PHILIPPINES.

Minnesota Men Interested in a Development Company.

Washington, July 22.—The Minnesota and Manila Industrial and Development company is the title of a company of enterprising business men of St. Paul, New York and Washington. The company will, it is understood, open a large supply house in Manila, and if it proves as successful as anticipated, branch stores will be located elsewhere in different Philippine cities. Frank S. Challoner of New York is in Washington looking up information concerning any rules and regulations which the war department and insular bureau exact of Americans in the Philippines. The new tariff between the United States and the islands has not yet been promulgated, but it is expected that it will be passed upon and approved by the president next week when he is in Washington.

Eldorado, Kan., July 22.—Seven women, headed by Mrs. H. T. Grover, president of the local W. C. T. U., entered a "joint" run in a tent in the center of town and demolished a tub full of bottled beer. They took samples of the liquor to the sheriff, who later ordered the "jointists" to quit business. Five hundred people gathered while the raid was in progress. A "jointist" in another part of town loaded his stock into a wagon and disappeared.

FUNSTON TO RESIGN.

Reported That He Will Quit the Army For Commercial Work.

Army officers returning from the Philippines report that General Fred Funston expects to tender his resignation as brigadier general in the regular establishment and engage in private business. He is quoted as having said as soon as all active military operations in the islands cease he will give up his place in the army and will represent a large commercial concern which has made him a handsome offer for his services. His resignation is expected to be forthcoming before October. The report that the Kansan would resign was thoroughly discussed by officers at the war department in Washington the other day, and, while no one seemed to have any direct information concerning his intentions, the statement that he would leave the army was generally accepted as true, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. People in Washington who know Funston say that he is not by nature adapted to the routine of a military part in times of peace and that his spirit of daring and enterprise will lead him into other fields.

Officers who have returned within the past few days say he did not expect the promotion that resulted from his capture of Aguinaldo and that when he was shown the cablegram from the war department announcing his appointment as a brigadier general he expressed astonishment that his exploit should have led the president to accord him such recognition. At that time, it is said, he was making arrangements to get out of the army, his intention then being to accept a proposition of a large business concern to represent it in the Philippines. The promotion for the time being of course diverted his attention from such plans. The offer is said to have been renewed since, and as it would bring him a much larger salary than that of brigadier it is understood he has decided to accept it.

PEARL CITY OF THE WEST

Facts About a New Industry on the Mississippi.

VISIT TO THE PEARLING GROUNDS

Picturesque Village of White Tents Marks Location of the Camping Grounds of Pearl Hunters Near Langdon, Minn.—Process of Catching Clams and Extracting the Pearls.

Pearl hunting in the Mississippi is growing more enthusiastic each day and bids fair to soon become one of the greatest industries on the Father of Waters. A St. Paul Pioneer Press correspondent a few days ago visited the large pearling grounds recently located above Langdon, Minn., and found the hunters actively engaged in catching, cooking and sorting the clams, wherein the most valuable of pearls are found. The camping grounds are situated on the bank of the river, and their many white tents dotted here and there present quite a picturesque village, which has been appropriately designated as the "Pearl City."

A large number of families are located there. The woods abound in ducks, geese, turkeys, chickens, pigs, cows, etc., belonging to the inhabitants, whose entire subsistence is the clam meats. One family occupies a houseboat of several rooms, and it may well be called a "floating palace," as the furnishings inside are as neat and stylish as any modern residence on land.

On the water are to be seen large fleets of clamboats, the occupants being industriously engaged in catching the clams by means of numerous large wire hooks attached to iron bars from 18 to 20 feet in length, two bars containing 50 to 100 hooks being on each boat. Then the clams are brought ashore and placed in large cooking pans holding half a ton each, with furnace attached, where they are allowed to cook an hour. By this means they readily open themselves. After passing through the process of cooking they are shoveled on to large tables to cool.

Then comes the most interesting part of the labor, the sorting of shells and looking over meats after pearls. Nearly every clam contains some sort of pearl either perfect or imperfect, the latter being termed "slugs" and found in abundance of all sizes and shapes. The price received for the slugs is $1.50 per ounce, and many larger unique shaped ones bring as high as $40 to $50, according to their luster. Many very valuable pearls have been discovered in these clams, and immense fortunes are within the grasp of these diligent workers.

Only a few years ago such an industry was not dreamed of. The shells are towed in barges by steamboat to the many large button factories located at down river cities, where the finest of pearl buttons are manufactured from them, and $10 to $12 per ton is realized from the shells.

Each hunter is capable of securing from one and a half to two tons daily. Many shells are found with magnificent pearls attached to them. These are sold to eastern pearl buyers, large sums being realized for them, as they are very rare. One such shell found a few days ago by Mr. Kish is valued at $15.

This season gasoline launches will be brought into service to tow barges of shells down the river. A magnificent launch is now anchored at the pearling grounds at Langdon to be utilized by the workers. It is generally thought that a large button factory will be located nearer the Twin Cities in the near future for the better accommodation of clam hunters at up river points.

OIL FOR DUSTY ROADS.

Successful Experiments Conducted by Missouri Agricultural College.

Dr. H. J. Waters, dean of the Missouri Agricultural college, is conducting experiments in Columbia with "sweet" oil which have attracted considerable attention there and elsewhere, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Two things are claimed for the discovery. First, it will keep the dust laid, and, second, it will make the roads dry even in wet weather by causing the rain to slide into the gutters.

As a result of the oiling of several roads in Columbia and Boone county it has been demonstrated that no dust arises, no matter how dry the road. In fact the dust has been laid perfectly by the new method, the only disagreeable feature being the odor, which, it is claimed, will disappear when rain comes. The oil is injected to the depth of two inches, and the ground is then rolled thoroughly.

Straw For Our Hats.

A prominent hatter, whose firm name is known throughout the length and breadth of the United States and in England, speaking about Panama hats to a reporter of the New York Press, said: "The highest priced so called Panama hat we have in stock this year sells for $12. We hear and read of other merchants having them worth $25 and finding customers at that price. In old days a genuine Panama brought from $100 to $250, and there is a tradition that General Grant had one valued at $500. New Yorkers are too young fashioned to bother with so expensive headgear, because when the styles change they want to change with them. I haven't a single customer who would think of wearing a hat longer than one season. There is no economy in spending $25 for a hat that can be worn only four months. We make our own straws, importing the material from Japan."

A VALUABLE MACHINE.

Invention of a Texan to Remove Cottonseed Hulls.

Among the visitors to the fishing and hunting resort at Kingsland, Tex., is Simon Geismar, who has invented and put to practical use a machine for removing the hulls from cotton seed. This wonderful invention has as yet made but little stir in the commercial world, but if the present plans of Mr. Geismar and associates are fulfilled it is only a question of a few years when the cottonseed oil industry will be revolutionized by this new method for preparing the kernels of the cotton seed for market. Already there is a plant erected and ready for operation when the cotton season opens in which the hull removing machinery is used. This plant is located at Austin and has a capacity of 100 tons of cotton seed per day. It was erected last year and operated on a small scale during the cotton season of 1900. The business at that time, however, was to a large extent in the experimental stage, but it proved so highly successful that the capacity of the plant was greatly increased for this season's business, and plans are now being considered for the establishment of similar plants at other points in the cotton belt of Texas. The Austin concern is owned and operated by Mr. Geismar and associates, and so far they have refused all offers for the purchase of the patent right from persons who desired to establish and operate similar plants.

Speaking of the invention to a St. Louis Globe-Democrat correspondent, Mr. Geismar said:

"The cotton seed hulling plant which we have erected at Austin has a capacity of 100 tons per day, and if we can obtain that amount of cotton seed in that market we will run the plant to the full amount of its capacity during the coming season. The process of removing the hulls from the kernels is purely mechanical, but I have a secret chemical process which is used in preparing the kernels for shipment. Our main office is situated in Paris, to which point all of the kernels are shipped. We have never attempted to build up a market for the kernels in this country owing to the fact that the demand for them in France is much greater than we will be able to supply for a long time to come."

WE MAY BE INDIANS SOON.

Professor Starr Tells What Keeps Us From Being Nomads Again.

"The American people in their physical characteristics are turning more and more like Indians every day. The only thing that prevents the people of the United States from becoming tribes of Indians in facial characteristics is the intermarriage between residents of this country and immigrants from foreign lands."

This is the statement made by Professor Frederick Starr to his class in anthropology at the University of Chicago the other day, says the New York World.

"If the immigration laws should once be strictly enforced, a few years would see us all Indians. Once make the cry general that America is being used as the dumping ground of European nations and so stir up public spirit as to exclude foreign elements, and it would only take a few years for the Indian to haunt his old time pastures again."

Artificial Stone.

Quarrymen and stone dressers will probably be gradually crowded out of their occupation by the use of artificial stone. In the manufacture of this stone the sand is heated and the cement added to the amount of 12 per cent of the mixture. The steel molds are filled with the dry material and moved into an immense cylinder, which is closed and bolted. Boiling water is then turned in under pressure sufficient to force it all through the sand in the molds. The cement slacks, but the steel molds do not permit any expansion to occur, and the stone is formed and dried under an immense pressure. The result is a very hard stone, which can be supplied in shapes desired and much cheaper than the natural stone.

Noncooking Restaurants.

Odd as it may appear to dwellers in small cities, some of the down town restaurants of New York are in buildings in which no cooking is allowed. Some of the busiest of the midday restaurants purchase all their meats and stews already cooked and merely heat them through again before serving them to patrons. This branch of the restaurant business has reached such proportions that the mere operation of cooking for such places has become an established business, and owners of ovens thrive at it.—New York Sun.

DENOUNCES C. A. TOWNE.

Johnson of Kansas Has a Poor Opinion of the Minnesotan.

Kansas City, July 22.—Charles A. Towne of Minnesota was branded as a bolter by J. G. Johnson, chairman of the executive committee of the Democratic national committee in an interview here.

"We didn't lose anything when we lost Towne." He said: "Towne is only a sort of a Webster Davis, anyway. The Republican party didn't lose anything when it lost Webster Davis and it won't gain anything when it gets him back. He flopped from Republicanism for the same reason that Towne has flopped from Democracy. Because he was disgruntled. The Democratic party has no use for the disgruntled element."

Chairman Johnson was very bitter in his denunciation of "lackadaisical Democrats" who, he says, are trying to reorganize the party to their own selfish ends and says no bolter should dictate the policy of the party however gloomy the outlook may be.

TWELVE TO A CLAIM.

Feared Disorder and Distress Will Follow Kiowa-Comanche Opening

Fort Sill, O. T., July 22.—Disorder and distress will, it is feared, follow the actual opening of the Kiowa-Comanche reservation on Aug. 6. It is now estimated that fully 150,000 people will have registered for a chance to secure one of the 13,000 claims to be awarded by lottery when the registration booths close on July 26. Thousands of persons now on the reservation who are neither mechanics nor artisans and who have little or no money announce their intention of locating around Lawton if they fail to win a claim. Campers who came in prairie schooners by the thousands generally brought with them provisions sufficient to last only from five to ten days. Continued drouth has caused the water to be restricted and for days a hot wind has blown over the prairies and the temperature has averaged over the 100 mark. With these conditions before them many are already beginning to grumble, and when this is followed by disappointment over failure to draw a lucky number the hope that bore up many will doubtless give way to more serious conditions.

Frank S. Challoner of New York is in Washington looking up information concerning any rules and regulations which the war department and insular bureau exact of Americans in the Philippines. The new tariff between the United States and the islands has not yet been promulgated, but it is expected that it will be passed upon and approved by the president next week when he is in Washington.

Speaking of the invention to a St. Louis Globe-Democrat correspondent, Mr. Geismar said:

"The cotton seed hulling plant which we have erected at Austin has a capacity of 100 tons per day, and if we can obtain that amount of cotton seed in that market we will run the plant to the full amount of its capacity during the coming season. The process of removing the hulls from the kernels is purely mechanical, but I have a secret chemical process which is used in preparing the kernels for shipment. Our main office is situated in Paris, to which point all of the kernels are shipped. We have never attempted to build up a market for the kernels in this country owing to the fact that the demand for them in France is much greater than we will be able to supply for a long time to come."

DENOUNCES C. A. TOWNE.

Johnson of Kansas Has a Poor Opinion of the Minnesotan.

Kansas City, July 22.—Charles A. Towne of Minnesota was branded as a bolter by J. G. Johnson, chairman of the executive committee of the Democratic national committee in an interview here.

"We didn't lose anything when we lost Towne." He said: "Towne is only a sort of a Webster Davis, anyway. The Republican party didn't lose anything when it lost Webster Davis and it won't gain anything when it gets him back. He flopped from Republicanism for the same reason that Towne has flopped from Democracy. Because he was disgruntled. The Democratic party has no use for the disgruntled element."

Chairman Johnson was very bitter in his denunciation of "lackadaisical Democrats" who, he says, are trying to reorganize the party to their own selfish ends and says no bolter should dictate the policy of the party however gloomy the outlook may be.

TWELVE TO A CLAIM.

Feared Disorder and Distress Will Follow Kiowa-Comanche Opening

Fort Sill, O. T., July 22.—Disorder and distress will, it is feared, follow the actual opening of the Kiowa-Comanche reservation on Aug. 6. It is now estimated that fully 150,000 people will have registered for a chance to secure one of the 13,000 claims to be awarded by lottery when the registration booths close on July 26. Thousands of persons now on the reservation who are neither mechanics nor artisans and who have little or no money announce their intention of locating around Lawton if they fail to win a claim. Campers who came in prairie schooners by the thousands generally brought with them provisions sufficient to last only from five to ten days. Continued drouth has caused the water to be restricted and for days a hot wind has blown over the prairies and the temperature has averaged over the 100 mark. With these conditions before them many are already beginning to grumble, and when this is followed by disappointment over failure to draw a lucky number the hope that bore up many will doubtless give way to more serious conditions.

Minnesota Men Interested in a Development Company.

Washington, July 22.—The Minnesota and Manila Industrial and Development company is the title of a company of enterprising business men of St. Paul, New York and Washington. The company will, it is understood, open a large supply house in Manila, and if it proves as successful as anticipated, branch stores will be located elsewhere in different Philippine cities. Frank S. Challoner of New York is in Washington looking up information concerning any rules and regulations which the war department and insular bureau exact of Americans in the Philippines. The new tariff between the United States and the islands has not yet been promulgated, but it is expected that it will be passed upon and approved by the president next week when he is in Washington.

They took samples of the liquor to the sheriff, who later ordered the "jointists" to quit business. Five hundred people gathered while the raid was in progress. A "jointist" in another part of town loaded his stock into a wagon and disappeared.

FUNSTON TO RESIGN.

Reported That He Will Quit the Army For Commercial Work.

Army officers returning from the Philippines report that General Fred Funston expects to tender his resignation as brigadier general in the regular establishment and engage in private business. He is quoted as having said as soon as all active military operations in the islands cease he will give up his place in the army and will represent a large commercial concern which has made him a handsome offer for his services. His resignation is expected to be forthcoming before October. The report that the Kansan would resign was thoroughly discussed by officers at the war department in Washington the other day, and, while no one seemed to have any direct information concerning his intentions, the statement that he would leave the army was generally accepted as true, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. People in Washington who know Funston say that he is not by nature adapted to the routine of a military part in times of peace and that his spirit of daring and enterprise will lead him into other fields.

Officers who have returned within the past few days say he did not expect the promotion that resulted from his capture of Aguinaldo and that when he was shown the cablegram from the war department announcing his appointment as a brigadier general he expressed astonishment that his exploit should have led the president to accord him such recognition. At that time, it is said, he was making arrangements to get out of the army, his intention then being to accept a proposition of a large business concern to represent it in the Philippines. The promotion for the time being of course diverted his attention from such plans. The offer is said to have been renewed since, and as it would bring him a much larger salary than that of brigadier it is understood he has decided to accept it.

PEARL CITY OF THE WEST

Facts About a New Industry on the Mississippi.

VISIT TO THE PEARLING GROUNDS

Picturesque Village of White Tents Marks Location of the Camping Grounds of Pearl Hunters Near Langdon, Minn.—Process of Catching Clams and Extracting the Pearls.

Pearl hunting in the Mississippi is growing more enthusiastic each day and bids fair to soon become one of the greatest industries on the Father of Waters. A St. Paul Pioneer Press correspondent a few days ago visited the large pearling grounds recently located above Langdon, Minn., and found the hunters actively engaged in catching, cooking and sorting the clams, wherein the most valuable of pearls are found. The camping grounds are situated on the bank of the river, and their many white tents dotted here and there present quite a picturesque village, which has been appropriately designated as the "Pearl City."

A large number of families are located there. The woods abound in ducks, geese, turkeys, chickens, pigs, cows, etc., belonging to the inhabitants, whose entire subsistence is the clam meats. One family occupies a houseboat of several rooms, and it may well be called a "floating palace," as the furnishings inside are as neat and stylish as any modern residence on land.

On the water are to be seen large fleets of clamboats, the occupants being industriously engaged in catching the clams by means of numerous large wire hooks attached to iron bars from 18 to 20 feet in length, two bars containing 50 to 100 hooks being on each boat. Then the clams are brought ashore and placed in large cooking pans holding half a ton each, with furnace attached, where they are allowed to cook an hour. By this means they readily open themselves. After passing through the process of cooking they are shoveled on to large tables to cool.

Then comes the most interesting part of the labor, the sorting of shells and looking over meats after pearls. Nearly every clam contains some sort of pearl either perfect or imperfect, the latter being termed "slugs" and found in abundance of all sizes and shapes. The price received for the slugs is $1.50 per ounce, and many larger unique shaped ones bring as high as $40 to $50, according to their luster. Many very valuable pearls have been discovered in these clams, and immense fortunes are within the grasp of these diligent workers.

Only a few years ago such an industry was not dreamed of. The shells are towed in barges by steamboat to the many large button factories located at down river cities, where the finest of pearl buttons are manufactured from them, and $10 to $12 per ton is realized from the shells.

Each hunter is capable of securing from one and a half to two tons daily. Many shells are found with magnificent pearls attached to them. These are sold to eastern pearl buyers, large sums being realized for them, as they are very rare. One such shell found a few days ago by Mr. Kish is valued at $15.

This season gasoline launches will be brought into service to tow barges of shells down the river. A magnificent launch is now anchored at the pearling grounds at Langdon to be utilized by the workers. It is generally thought that a large button factory will be located nearer the Twin Cities in the near future for the better accommodation of clam hunters at up river points.

OIL FOR DUSTY ROADS.

Successful Experiments Conducted by Missouri Agricultural College.

Dr. H. J. Waters, dean of the Missouri Agricultural college, is conducting experiments in Columbia with "sweet" oil which have attracted considerable attention there and elsewhere, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Two things are claimed for the discovery. First, it will keep the dust laid, and, second, it will make the roads dry even in wet weather by causing the rain to slide into the gutters.

As a result of the oiling of several roads in Columbia and Boone county it has been demonstrated that no dust arises, no matter how dry the road. In fact the dust has been laid perfectly by the new method, the only disagreeable feature being the odor, which, it is claimed, will disappear when rain comes. The oil is injected to the depth of two inches, and the ground is then rolled thoroughly.

Straw For Our Hats.

A prominent hatter, whose firm name is known throughout the length and breadth of the United States and in England, speaking about Panama hats to a reporter of the New York Press, said: "The highest priced so called Panama hat we have in stock this year sells for $12. We hear and read of other merchants having them worth $25 and finding customers at that price. In old days a genuine Panama brought from $100 to $250, and there is a tradition that General Grant had one valued at $500. New Yorkers are too young fashioned to bother with so expensive headgear, because when the styles change they want to change with them. I haven't a single customer who would think of wearing a hat longer than one season. There is no economy in spending $25 for a hat that can be worn only four months. We make our own straws, importing the material from Japan."

A VALUABLE MACHINE.

Invention of a Texan to Remove Cottonseed Hulls.

Among the visitors to the fishing and hunting resort at Kingsland, Tex., is Simon Geismar, who has invented and put to practical use a machine for removing the hulls from cotton seed. This wonderful invention has as yet made but little stir in the commercial world, but if the present plans of Mr. Geismar and associates are fulfilled it is only a question of a few years when the cottonseed oil industry will be revolutionized by this new method for preparing the kernels of the cotton seed for market. Already there is a plant erected and ready for operation when the cotton season opens in which the hull removing machinery is used. This plant is located at Austin and has a capacity of 100 tons of cotton seed per day. It was erected last year and operated on a small scale during the cotton season of 1900. The business at that time, however, was to a large extent in the experimental stage, but it proved so highly successful that the capacity of the plant was greatly increased for this season's business, and plans are now being considered for the establishment of similar plants at other points in the cotton belt of Texas. The Austin concern is owned and operated by Mr. Geismar and associates, and so far they have refused all offers for the purchase of the patent right from persons who desired to establish and operate similar plants.

"The cotton seed hulling plant which we have erected at Austin has a capacity of 100 tons per day, and if we can obtain that amount of cotton seed in that market we will run the plant to the full amount of its capacity during the coming season. The process of removing the hulls from the kernels is purely mechanical, but I have a secret chemical process which is used in preparing the kernels for shipment. Our main office is situated in Paris, to which point all of the kernels are shipped. We have never attempted to build up a market for the kernels in this country owing to the fact that the demand for them in France is much greater than we will be able to supply for a long time to come."
